BREWCITY BRUISERS GO TO THE DOGS FOR 2019 SEASON OPENING BOUT

Fans are Invited to Bring Their Dogs to the January 27 Game at the UW Panther Arena

(Milwaukee, WI)—The Brewcity Bruisers are going to the dogs for their 2019 season opening bout on Sunday, January 27 at 4:00 pm. For the first time ever, fans are invited to bring their dogs to the roller derby double header! Dog tickets cost $4 at the door, while corresponding human tickets are $20.* All dogs attending the game require a paid ticket.

The bout will feature a wiener dog race at halftime by the Milwaukee Area Dachshund Lovers club. Fans will have a chance for fans to meet the racing dogs prior to the race.

A section will be reserved for fans who bring their dogs, and a convenient access point will be designated for animals to relieve themselves throughout the event. Only human food will be available for purchase.

Ticket Prices*:

Adult: In advance: $17.00; Day-of-bout: $20.00

Kids 6-12, seniors 55+, military, students: In advance: $14.00; Day-of-bout: $17.00

Dogs: $4.00 at the door

*Fans can bring a non-perishable food item to receive $3 off your admission at the door.

Online tickets are available here.

About the Brewcity Bruisers

Established in 2005, Brewcity Bruisers Roller Derby is a skater-owned and operated flat track roller derby league and non-profit organization that represents individuals from a variety of backgrounds, attitudes and skill levels. The league's goal is to offer competitive roller derby while promoting the physical, mental and emotional well-being of league members and the Milwaukee community at large.
